

Apprentice3

Modem

Overview

The Apprentice3 telephone modem add-on module can easily be added to any Apprentice3 lighting controller to provide a connection from a remote computer equipped with a modem and Apprentice3 software. Over a standard analog telephone line, you have the ability to monitor, program, back up and control the lighting controller from a remote location. Only one module per Apprentice3 network is required.

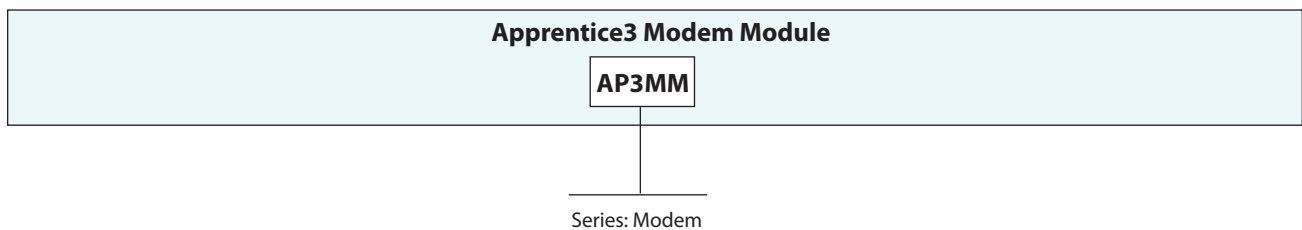

Features

- Made in the USA
- Digital CAT 5 ready
- Mounts directly in the Apprentice3 panel
- RJ11 jack for phone line connection
- Powered directly from panel
- Connects at 56K baud rate
- For use with Apprentice3 software
- Allows remote monitoring, programming, back up and control
- Only one module required per Apprentice3 network
- Supplied with all required mounting hardware

Warranty

One year limited warranty

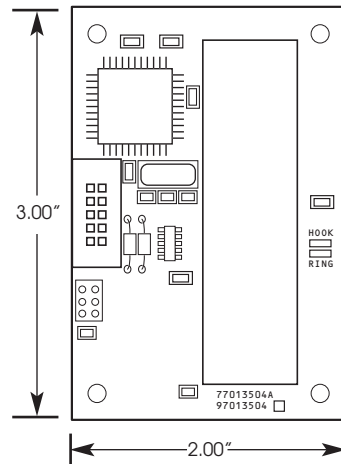

Ordering

Apprentice3

Modem

Physical

Specifications

Physical:

- 2.00" Wide X 3.00" High
- RJ11 connectors for analog phone line communications
- Audible sounder

Electrical:

- Powered from the controller

Operating Environment:

- Location: Interior space
- Operating Temp.: 0° to 50° C
- Humidity: 10% - 90% Non-condensing
- Atmosphere: Non-explosive/corrosive
- Vibration: Stationary

Certifications and Approvals:

- UL60950-1
- FCC Part 15 Class B
- FCC Part 68